On the last evening of the Luminaria, the “I Ragazzi della Luminaria” (the Luminaria Crew) will light up the square with “the flame” given by the Arci-Bishop. The Crew is the real main character of all the event: during the days before the event, with dedication and perseverance, they prepare the multiple handcrafted candles made with tin, oil and wick. This is one of the “recipes” that our ancestors handed down to us. During the evening the Belgian company "Pyronix Production" will perform in some shows of fire, flames, dances and acrobats.
